COMMISSION LISTENS TO SUSANNA BLAIR

BRAINSTORMS

With Ferrin Cox

Year after year we receive magazine sweepstakes entry forms, just as do millions of other Americans. We have shared the concerns of these millions that we don't ever win, nor do we know anyone else who wins. Well that has changed now, 'cause we know the Texas man who won the Publisher's Clearing House millions last year. His name is Bob Castleberry of Denton, Texas. Before winning the money he worked for Moore Business Forms, and was the company dealer rep back when we sold their business forms. We can't say we were close buddies with the man, but had talked with him face-to-face a couple of times and could call on the telephone and get him to answer our questions. That ain't much, but at least we know he is a real person. Our time is next... or next... or next.

There is a group of local folks upset with happenings in the Elba High School band program. This time our dogs are not in that hunt. A couple of years ago we reported that band parents were upset with a decision made down there and right away we were the "bad guy." We remained the bad guy in that matter, even though later meetings with the parents revealed we had told it right. This time someone else did the reporting and we are sitting back and watching. The question now is, Will Elba have majorities on a dance line of 20 girls? We are waiting for Chapter 2 in the continuing saga.

Last week we received another of our regular unsigned notes from "brave" readers. This one was taking us to task for our mistakes in this column. The writer has marked four mistakes in a single week's column. They were right on each count. We apologize to each of you for this sloppy writing. However our writer jumped on our misuse of effect and affect with the statement "Do you remember the 'big deal' you made over the posters that were put up by high school students when the misused the words accept and except?" Well, it was on February 2, 1989 and the two words were the same as my mistake... NOT accept and except... Also we deny making a big deal over it, in fact we noted that two English teachers pointed it out to us and went on to write that if we could keep them out next year, we might learn something from the projects. We hope our readers understood that we were poking fun at two friends. However, not knowing our writer, we are now guessing when we predict that this writer's problem was not with our mistakes but with our subject. We used except talking about Alabama football when any thinking person probably knows the word should have been accept. The truth is probably that our critic didn't like Bill Curry being associated with Bama (football) or was insulted when he even considered a job at Kentucky. Whatever, we will be more careful and will try to use as where it should be and not and. We will be careful with our typing and proofing and watch for appear when it should be appear, etc. A computer will check for correct spelling but we find it still takes humans to put in the correct words. Folks, don't hesitate to call mistakes to our attention in person... we promise not to bite. Frankly we will respect this much, much more than these crappy unsigned notes!

At this writing we don't really know what is going on in Enterprise. Friends tell us there are more federal marshals in that town today (Monday) than they thought were in the whole State of Alabama! We do know this is part of the task force investigating the mail bombs that killed a Birmingham judge and a Georgia lawyer. We have talked with a couple of people the feds questioned during the weekend and from the direction of their questions have a vague idea of what is going on and it is shocking. We wrote on December 21st that we were insulted this was happening in America. We commented that we hoped law officers would catch those responsible and put a stop to this. Little did we expect the bombs were coming from Coffee County. In fact it is highly possible the folks responsible are people we know and do business with! Now that is a bit scary.

A couple of months ago there was a bunch of those New York types in Coffee County spending thousands of dollars (thru a TV commercial) for New York Life Insurance. The commercial features Fred Donaldson and family plus the Gibbs McCormick family. The word we get is that the commercial will be aired during the first half of the Super Bowl, on Sunday January 28. Now all you folks will have to watch the football game to see our friends. This also means you can't run to the bathroom or the frig during the commercials!

From The Mail Bag

Dear Editor:
As 1989 President of the Elba Chamber of Commerce, I would like to express my appreciation and thanks to those who made the Christmas Festival a big success (in spite of the weather).

For this memorable day special thanks to Jack E. Brunson, chairman and his committee for planning and securing the entertainment. AARP for sponsoring "Geneva Senior Citizens Rhythm Band"; SouthTrust Bank for "Circle City Barbershop Chorus"; Peoples Bank "Moonlighters Instrumental Ensemble"; National Security Insurance Company for the fabulous fireworks display; the Troy Clothing Company, Mike's Gym, Mr. Henry and State Farm Agent Mike McGuire, for the D.J.s, Mike Parish, Street Dance, the Jaycees Lynn Baker for arts and crafts; and Jeanne Vignola and Mike Kelley for the parade; and the New Season's Study Club for Santa in the Garb.

To all who decorated the square and the courthouse, it was beautiful and we thank you and last but by no means least, for without them there could have been no festival, the City Electric Department, for their valiant efforts in getting all the lights up and keeping them burning.

My terms as president really went out in a blaze of glory and I hope we will see many more of Christmas Festivals - this is the best thing to have happened in Elba in many years.

Sincerely,
BUTCH OGGS

Ellis - Eldridge Wedding

Ellis Kaye Eldridge became the bride of Ralph Wade Ellis in a double ring ceremony at seven o'clock in the evening on Friday, December 15, 1989 at the Mount Olive Assembly of God Church.

The ceremony was performed by Reverend Hollis Bradley, pastor of the Goodman Assembly of God Church.

Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. James Eldridge of Elba, Alabama, and Mrs. Johnny Ellis of Brundidge, Alabama.

The doors of the church were adorned with beautiful mauve colored wreaths. Large mauve colored satin bows completed the outside decorations.

Upon entering the church the guests were registered by Mrs. Vicki Wentland, sister of the groom. A program of music selected by the bride was performed by pianist Melinda Turvan of Brundidge, Alabama, cousin of the groom. She was accompanied by soloist Janice Kelley of Kinston, Alabama, friend of the bride. Selected songs were "Lost in Your Eyes", "Shower Me With Your Love", and "My Endless Love".

The church building was decorated with white lilies, pine, ivy and bay leaves. The large fifteen-arch candelabra and two heart-shaped candelabras were positioned at the front of the church, along with two large fans. Accenting the arch candelabra was a large mauve and burgundy silk arrangement made with silk poinsettias. According to the candelabras were satin mauve bows. The banisters at the front of the church were decorated with greenery and mauve satin bows.

The prayer bench and unity candle were accented with bows and ribbons of mauve colored satin. Many votive candles with mauve and burgundy centerpieces highlighted each window of the church.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a pick-up skirt white satin bridal gown with a deep chivalry lace flounce. The gown had a Regal Queen neckline and short puffed sleeves. Both the sleeves and the entire bodice were inset with venise lace and highlighted with clusters of seed pearls and short puffed sleeves. Both the skirt and entire train was underlaid with gathered chivalry lace.

Seed pearls and iridescent sequins covered the train of the double-layered tulle veil. The headpiece of the tulle veil share the Queen Ann resemblance. The bride's bouquet was of mauve and burgundy silk roses with mauve candelabra lace and chiffon ribbon.

The bride's bouquet was made by Miss Kay Sims, a friend of the bride.

Vonda Mills of Elba, Alabama served as the bride's maid of honor. Bridesmaids were - Bobbie Lucas, of Elba, Alabama, Darlene Broxey of Enterprise, Alabama, and Kay Sims of Andalusia, Alabama. The attendants wore mauve floor length satin gowns and the three bridesmaids carried a long stemmed mauve rose secured by mauve chiffon ribbon. The bride's maid of honor carried a smaller similar bouquet of the bride, also made by Kay Sims.

Bill Stirling of Brundidge, Alabama served as the groom's best man. Those serving as groomsmen were Allen Ellis, Greg Turvan, Steve Davis, all from Brundidge, Alabama. Those serving as ushers were Royce Ellis and Henry Wentland, also of Brundidge, Alabama.

The reception followed in the fellowship hall of the church. The bride's table was covered with a white floor length cloth and overlaid with a white lace cloth. The table held the four-tiered cake, a fountain, and a centerpiece. The groom's mother wore a knee-length dress of rose satin overlaid with chiffon lace with short sleeves.

Both mother's corsages were of white silk roses interspersed with seed pearls and mauve colored petals.

Second Graders Study Food Chain

By: Aimee Rountz

A unit of study on animals was recently completed by the second graders under the supervision of Mrs. Elizabeth Dyess. After the unit was completed Mrs. Dyess required her class to do a "Food Web" as a science project. A "Food Web" shows how people and animals depend on plants for food. For example, people eat cows and cows eat grass.

Justin Law did an unusual project. He made an aquarium out of a box. He had the Tiger shark eating tuna, tuna eating cod, cod eating shrimp, and the shrimp eating algae. Justin's box was colored blue like the ocean. His fish were 3-D and hanging from strings to appear to be swimming. Most students did their "Food Web" on poster paper.

The students were required to have at least four or five lengths in their projects. They were also allowed to be creative on how they showed their "web".

Zion Chapel Teachers Attend ADD Conference at TSU

By: Jennifer Flowers

Attention Deficit Disorders (ADD) was the topic of a conference that was recently attended by several Zion Chapel teachers. The conference was presented by Troy State University (TSU) and was under the direction of Edna D. Copeland Ph.D., a child/clinical psychologist and Ronald A. Walker, a behavior/learning specialist.

There are many causes of ADD-like behavior. These include allergies, food intolerance, type and hyperthyroidism, depression, manic-depression illness, auditory processing problems, learning disabilities, poor parenting, disorganized environments, and excessive stress. ADD is often improperly diagnosed as an education problem and tutoring or remediation is recommended.

ADD is frequently misdiagnosed as a family problem - one that is caused by ineffective parenting or parenting conflict. If allergies are incorrectly diagnosed as ADD and are treated with stimulant medication, the child may get worse, although some children do improve to some degree. If an anxious child is misdiagnosed as having ADD and is given stimulant medication, he is likely to be even more tense, agitated and labile. The symptoms of hyperthyroidism, which include rapid heart beat, irritability, and over-reactivity, will be intensified by stimulant medication. It is critical to rule out medical causes of the ADD symptoms.

The teachers received instruction on how to aid ADD students. Limit the amount of distraction in the classroom. Bulletin boards should consist only of their work - convincing them that their work is more important. The teacher should be made the most stimulating thing in the classroom. Do not allow the students to face one another. Keep them as far away from each other as possible. Also do not place the ADD child next to the teacher because it is most distracting. The best area to place the ADD child is in the middle surrounded by hard-working students. The most distracting thing a teacher can do is to verbally correct the child. Corrections should be made one-on-one, at eye-level, in a whisper. Never give instructions until you get everyone's eye contact.

1. Before you begin lunch preparation, wash your hands thoroughly. If you have cuts or sores, wear rubber gloves.

2. Keep utensils and countertops clean by washing them with soap and hot water.

3. Wash vacuum bottles and rinse them in boiling water each time you use them.

4. Use an insulated lunchbox, instead of a paper bag. Clean the lunchbox out everyday. If you do use paper bags, use the kinds made specifically for lunches and use them only once.

5. Use food that has been thoroughly cooked. If it is hot, keep it that way by storing it in a vacuum bottle. If it is supposed to be cold, keep it cold by putting it next to a commercial ice pack, a frozen juice box or a plastic margarine tube filled with water and frozen.

6. Soups, stews and chili can be poured into a sterile vacuum bottle after they have been boiled.

7. Freezing certain types of sandwiches can keep them cool although there may be some loss of quality in the sandwich.

8. Dried meats, canned meats and poultry products and fully-cooked meats such as bologna, salami or frankies keep well in lunchboxes.

9. When making up the sandwich, use a fork or other utensil to place the meat, poultry or cheese since fingers can spread bacteria.

10. All fruits and vegetables should be washed thoroughly.

11. Pack amounts of food your child can realistically be expected to eat and do not reuse food that has been sitting at room temperature all day.

12. Keep the box or bag in the refrigerator until your child is ready to leave in the morning.

13. Send a note to the teacher asking if lunch boxes are stored in the classroom in a cool spot, away from direct light or by a heating vent.

VIEWS FROM

THE PRESSBOX

BY RICKY MULARZ

I've never bragged about being real smart and certainly never went to pharmacy school, but for the life of me I can't figure out how some of the cold medicines on the shelves today can do all they claim. I went to the drug store Saturday to get an over the counter medicine to help the Mularz clan get over its battle with a cold and while I found plenty of cures, I started reading the boxes and found out that some of the medicines could cure just about anything. One medicine could stop my headache and at the same time cure a runny nose and a stuffy nose. What? I thought a runny nose and a stuffy nose were opposite symptoms. Oh well, I bought two kinds of medicines and we're still kicking, so, I guess they did what they said!

ELBA TIGERS UP RECORD TO 8-5 WITH 4 WINS

The Elba Tigers extended their winning streak to four games last week and in the process improved their record for the season to 8-5. I know that an 8-5 record is nothing to write home about, but when the record was 4-5 just two weeks ago, the new record is something to get excited about!

The Tigers seem to have overcome their mid-season slump and may finally be headed for the kind of season everyone expected. In the win over Florida this week the Tigers beat a team that was ranked 8th in the state in 2A circles and did so convincingly. Elba jumped on top early and then turned back repeated rallies to claim the impressive win. It may be true that the Tigers didn't put the Wildcats away when they had the chance early in the game; however, I believe that Florida had a lot to do with that and was very pleased with the win. In Friday night's win over Rehobeth, the Tigers could have scored over 100 points easily and scorched the nets for 34 points in the first quarter, but Coach Kennedy showed mercy for the Rebels and at the same time chose to let his starters get a rest and not risk injury. The Tigers were just about as hot as they've been all year in the first quarter and looked awesome. I don't care who the opposition was.

Elba has some tough games ahead in weeks to come and this week must travel to Clayton and Luverne, while hosting powerhouse Brantley. The Tigers have the chance to do some mighty big things in the next few games and it will be interesting to see which Tigers are for real, the bunch that went 4-5 or the bunch that has won four straight. I hope I'm right and get to see the real Tigers that are as good as any team to be found!

Elba's Bennie Daniels continued his fine play last week and against Rehobeth scored 16 points in the first quarter before taking a seat on the bench. Daniels was a flashy point-guard on the junior team that won the county title two years ago and in his two years on the varsity hasn't slowed down a bit. Daniels may try to get a little too fancy at times and sometimes misses easy shots in his attempts to do something spectacular, but he is the key to the Tigers' success and runs the offense at all times. If you haven't seen Bennie Daniels play, c'mon out, he may be the best player the Tigers have had on the court in many years.

AREA BASKETBALL TEAMS ROLLING ALONG

The high school basketball season is nearing the homestretch and it looks like all the teams in the area have legitimate shots at joining the post-season party in March. Here is how I see it in the final week in January...

***NEW BROCKTON upped its record to 16-1 last week and it looks like Coach Bobby Kinsal may finally have the team that gets him a win at the state tournament. The Gamecocks have no real stars, but have a solid team in every aspect and get the job done every night they hit the court. If the Gamecocks can keep their level of intensity up and not relax, who knows what may lie ahead!

***BRANTLEY posted two wins last week and may have answered the wake-up call they've been waiting for in the win over Zion Chapel. The Bulldogs trailed the Rebels by 14 points at the half, but came on strong in the final two quarters to win going away. Brantley improved its record to 11-2 with the win and maybe Coach Earl Henderson has convinced his squad that just because they are supposed to win, it still takes effort every night out. We'll see if the Dogs are on the prowl!

***KINSTON won two of three games last week to bring their record to 8-5 and almost pulled off a big upset over New Brockton before falling by two points. However, Coach Terry Weeks and his players never say die and are always fighting to find ways to win. Keep an eye on Kinston as tourney time nears.

***ZION CHAPEL suffered a loss to Brantley and in doing so blew a big lead, but the Rebels are still a team to watch in south Alabama and may have a few tricks still up their sleeve. Coach Tom Walker works the Rebels hard and does as good a job getting his team prepared to play as any coach around, so, you always have to be ready when you face the Rebels or they'll get you!

CLEMSON PLAYERS TAKE A STRONG STAND

The members of the Clemson Tiger football team took a stand last week after Coach Danny Ford was dismissed and it was a stand that while not popular with college heads, may be somewhat of a preview of things to come.

The Clemson players were upset with the firing of Coach Ford and threatened to boycott the season if Ford, or a member of the present Clemson staff, was not named the head coach. Strikes were unheard of in the professional sports until recent years, and now the time may have come for the players to want more voice in what happens to them.

Elba rips Rebels 86-63

The Elba Tigers improved their Area 3 record to 4-1 Friday night with an easy 86-63 win over the Rehobeth Rebels at Rehobeth.

The win, the fourth straight for the Tigers, upped Elba's record to 8-5, while Rehobeth fell to 0-14 with the loss and saw its losing streak in basketball reach 31 games.

The Tigers jumped out to a quick 6-0 lead in the Area 3 contest behind the shooting of Ronald McKinnon and David Rowe, and by the time Curry Jones scored from inside with 5:16 still left in the opening stanza the Elba lead was up to 12-2!

The Elba Tigers B team upped its record to 7-2 last week with a pair of easy wins over Florida and Rehobeth.

The Tigers led all the way to easily dispose of Florida 56-34 and took charge in the second half to down Rehobeth 50-39.

Following are highlights of both wins:

ELBA 56
FLORIDA 34

The Tigers pulled ahead early and never looked back as they pounded Florida 56-34.

Elba led only 9-4 after one quarter, but extended its lead to 24-11 by the end of the half and coasted in with the win.

Terry Mosby scored 18 points to lead Elba, while Dee Miller added 17.

Elba (56): N. Whitfield 4, T. Whitfield 12, Goosby 14, Ware 3, Miller 17, Dawkins 4, Chism 2.

Florida (34): Cassidy 9, Phillips 4, Skanes 5, Lancaster 8, Phillips 8.

ELBA 50
REHOBETH 39

The Tigers woke up in the second half to dispose of Rehobeth 50-39.

The Tigers couldn't find the range in the first half and trailed 21-20 at intermission, but outscored the Rebels 17-6 in the third quarter to grab a 37-27 advantage and rolled to the win.

Terry Goosby scored 14 points to lead Elba, while Tim Whitfield added 12.

Elba (50): N. Whitfield 2, T. Whitfield 12, Goosby 14, Ware 3, Miller 8, McMillan 7, Thigpen 2.

Rehobeth (39): Adkinson 8, Simerly 8, Crowder 5, Blackman 4, Lampkin 6, Brooks 6, McAllister 2.

SPURS 15
BULLS 8

The Spurs pulled away in the second half to defeat the Bulls 15-8.

The Spurs held a slim 6-4 lead after one quarter and were tied at 6-6 at the half, but broke loose in the second half to take the win.

Aaron Kirkland scored 6 points to lead the Spurs, while other scorers included Derrick Thigpen 4, Josh Dawkins 3 and Trent Calhoun 2. Scoring for the Bulls were Doug Rainers 2, Josh Dawkins 4 and Derrick Thigpen 2.

HAWSKS 40
CELTICS 14

The Hawks led all the way to clobber the Celtics 40-14.

The Hawks jumped on top 16-5 after one quarter, extended their lead to 30-7 at the half and coasted to the easy win.

Derrick Daniels scored 17 points to lead the Hawks, while other scorers included Josh Mack 10, Tyrone Coleman 6, Forrest Hancock 5, John Dubose 2 and Jep Dubose 2. Scoring for the Celtics were Chris Powell 7, Doug Grimes 4 and Eric Wyatt 3.

A basket by the Rebels at the 4:30 mark of the quarter cut the Elba lead to 14-4, however, the Tigers, sparked by the three-point shooting of Bennie Daniels and the overall play of McKinnon, closed out the stanza with a 20-4 run that saw the Tigers' lead balloon to 34-10 after one quarter of play.

The Elba reserves got in the action at the beginning of the second quarter, but didn't slow down the pace, and using the three-point shooting of Shane Spurlin and Hayden Young opened the quarter with an 11-2 run that enabled the Tigers to extend their lead to 45-12 with 4:18 left in the half.

Elba took its biggest lead of the half with 1:57 left on the clock on a three-point play by Phil Boggan that gave the Tigers a 53-18 bulge and at intermission the Tigers went in with a lopsided 53-20 advantage.

The Elba starters returned at the beginning of the third quarter, but after stretching the Tiger lead to 59-22 with 6:32 left in the quarter, Coach Hank Kennedy decided the outcome had long since been decided and benched all five starters for the remainder of the game.

Rehobeth reeled off 8 straight points midway through the stanza to cut the lead to 59-30 with 4:44 left in the quarter; however, the Tiger reserves, led by the play of Kevin Barnes and Phil Boggan, closed out the stanza with a 15-4 run to give the Tigers a whopping 74-34 lead heading into the final stanza!

Elba took its biggest lead of the night at 75-34 at the start of the fourth quarter, but from there action got sloppy on both ends of the court as Elba easily held on for three 86-63 win.

Bennie Daniels scored 20 points, including 16 in the opening stanza, to pace the Tigers, while Shane Spurlin added 14 and Ronald McKinnon and Phil Boggan both scored 12. Porter led Rehobeth with 17 points.

Rehobeth (17): Porter 17, Phillips 10, Skanes 5, Lancaster 8, Phillips 8.

ELBA 86
REHOBETH 63

The high-powered Florida Wildcats brought an excellent 9-2 record and #8 state ranking to Elba last week for a battle with the Elba Tigers, but found the visit anything but enjoyable as the Tigers jumped out in front early and never looked back to pound the Wildcats 72-63.

The win upped Elba's record to 7-5, while Florida saw its slate dip to 9-3 with the loss.

Phil Boggan scored a season-high 15 points to lead the Tigers, while Bennie Daniels added 14, Jackie Stoudemire 13 and Ronald McKinnon 10. Carl Wilson led Florida with 24 points, while David Thrash and Columbus Wheeler both added 12.

New Brockton nips Kinston 54-52

The New Brockton Gamecocks emerged with a heartstopping 54-52 win, at the Bulldog gym.

New Brockton, ranked third in the state in 2A, upped its record to 16-1 with the win, while Kinston, ranked 10th in 1A, fell to 8-5 with the loss.

The Bulldogs used a deliberate offensive attack in the opening two quarters in an attempt to slow down the fast-paced Gamecocks, and led by the inside and outside shooting of senior Brandy Nobles, stunned the Gamecocks by grabbing a 16-point lead in the second stanza!

Kinston went in at the half with a solid 38-25 bulge and appeared to be in complete command of the befuddled Gamecocks; however, New Brockton stepped up the pace defensively in the third quarter and used a sticky halfcourt trap to sneak back in the game.

The Gamecocks, sparked by the play of Tony Newson, outscored the Bulldogs 10-1 to open the third quarter and seemed ready to take charge, only to see Kinston settle down late in the stanza and regain command at 44-36 heading into the final quarter.

Tony Newson was down, but confident, and once again staged a comeback as the Gamecocks outscored the Bulldogs 10-1 over the initial six minutes of the fourth quarter to pull even at 46-46!

Baskets by Robert Kilow and Malcolm Knox gave the Gamecocks a 50-46 lead and climaxed an incredible 14-2 run; however, Kinston's Brandy Nobles hit a three-pointer to end the Bulldogs' long scoring drought and chopped the New Brockton lead to 50-49.

New Brockton extended its lead to 52-49 on a Kilow basket and led 52-50 with 48 left on the clock following a Bulldog free-throw.

Malcolm Knox scored with 23 left to give the Gamecocks a 54-50 lead and a basket by Kinston at the buzzer did little except tighten the score as New Brockton had the win 54-52.

Tony Newson scored 18 points to lead New Brockton, while Chris Turner and Robert Kilow both added 11. Brandy Nobles poured in 27 points to lead the Bulldogs and Robert Laramore added 10.

Kinston's Brandy Nobles scored 27 points in a losing cause Friday night as the Bulldogs fell to rival New Brockton 54-52, in Kinston. The loss left the Bulldogs with an 8-5 record.
